Greatly Improved Passenger Accommodations Here.

THE PYTHIAN CARNIVAL

Great Preparations Are Being Made for the Entertainment to Be Given During the Week Beginning May 4th, in Petersburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., April 20 .- The Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company opened their new passenger station on Washington Street this morning. On the lower floor of this building are three waiting rooms, ticket office and baggage office. On the second floor is the agent's pffice, telegraph office, billing room and other necessary offices. The building is small, but conveniently arranged, and is quite an improvement over the former accommodations of the Coast Line in this city. Work is now goling on on the freight depot to be built on Washington Street between Union and Bycamore Streets. The old depot, from which the offices were moved to-day, is rapidly being torn down. This is one of the oldest depots in this country. The railroad between this city and Weldon
was among the first railroads in America.
The Knights of Pythias are busy arranging for the carnival to be given in Petersburg for the benefit of their order one week, beginning May ith. Twenty-five hundred copies of the "Virginian Pythian," published in this city, has been issued, the issue being a special carnival edition. These papers will be sent throughout the outlying countles. The Pythians have many members interested with them in their work in behalf of the carnival, and toy hope to realize a neat sum for the order as a result of these piforts.

Mr. Horace Smith, of Richmond, was Coast Line in this city. Work is now go-

Many people from this city will go to Richmond to-morrow, that being Petersburg day at the Confederate Bazaar. In the afternoon there will be many attractions arraigned in honor of the occasion.

A. P. Hill Camp will attend the bazaar in a body and their fine drum corps will accompany them. The Knights of Pythias and Eliks have also been invited, and many from these orders are expected to be present. The camp will go at once to the booth, "A Tale of Two Cities," where they will be received by Mrs. R. T. Meade, chairman, and Mesdames Bartleit Roper, R. L. Watson, Rosa Hill, William L. Venable, Edwin Nixon and others, A welcome will be extended the camp by Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., April 20 .- At the morning service in St. Paul's Episcopal Church vesterday the handsome pulpit re memorial to the late rector, Dr. T. M. Carson, was unveiled in the presence of a large congregation. The pulpit was covered with white cloth until just before the sermon, at which time little Minor Lille, son of Professor W. M. Lile, of the University of Virginia, and a grandson of Dr. Carson, advanced towards the chancel, dressed in the robes of a chorister, and pulled a cord, which removed this covering. At the close of his sermon Rev. J. M. Owens, the rector, paid an appropriate and touching culogy to the memory of the dead minister. memorial to the late rector, Dr. T. M appropriate and touching eulogy to the memory of the dead minister. The pulpit, which is quito tall, is of metal scroll work, in which are handsemely fushioned several emblems. On the front are the words of the text of Dr. Carson's first sermon, preached in St. Paul's thirty-three years ago, "We preach Christ crucified," and below, "To the Glory of God and in Memory of Theodore M. Carson, D. D. 1870-Beloved Rector of the Parish—1902."

The base of the pulpit is of pure white marble, and is relieved by several short columns. The entire work is superb, and is a fitting addition to the chancel of this beautiful church edifice.

Governor White, of West Virginia, and His Party Return to Charleston on Monday-Custom-House Officials Looking for Immigrants

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., April 20.-Morris Skolnik, a photographer attached to the Layton Carnival Company which showed here last week, was drowned about 10 o'clock yesterday morning off the Chesapeake and Ohlo passenger pier. The man was late for the steamer Virginia, which was just pulling out for Norfolk when he reached the pier. He made a jump from the pier for the boat. Falling to get a sure footing on the boat Failing to get a sure footing on the boat he sprang back to the pier, lost his balance and went into the water. Several people on the pier attempted to catch him, but finding that they were about to go overboard themselves, they let him go. Skeinik had a money-satchel slung around his neck containing his share of the week's earnings—$34—half of which was in sliver. The weight of the money acted as a sinker, and the unfortunate man went to the bottom before he could reach a rope which had been thrown to him. The body was recovered twenty minutes body was recovered twenty minutes later, being found in 21 feet of water. Bernard Sisson, Skolnik's partner, tele-graphed to the wife of the deceased, who graphed to the wife of the deceased, who lives in Brooklyn, and had the remains taken to an undertaking establishment. Mrs. Skolnik arrived here from Brooklyn this morning, and left this afternoon to take the body to Brooklyn for interment.

The case of R. W. Graves, colored, against the New Era Publishing Company, the company which publishes the Star, the local negro paper, is set for frial in the Corporation Court to-morrow. The plaintiff is suing for $1,000 damages for alleged libel. Some time ago Graves wrote an article advising the negroes of Virginia to stop fightlag the new Constitution and to set about to qualify themselves to live under the new order of things. The article was published in the Daily Press, and it caused something of a sensation among the negroes. The Star Trousted" Graves unmercifully, and, so the plaintiff claims, made a number of statements which were libelous. Captain C. C. Berkeley is the attorney for the plaintiff, and Colonel Maryus Jones, Mr. C. Aylett Ashby and J. T. Newsome, the negro lawyer, represent the partners who form the defendant company.

ber toppers were out as were ever collected on a hunting field.

Officers of the club are Dr. L. S. Ricketts, Orange, president; L. L. Shannon, vice-president; H. T. Holladay, Rapidan, secretary and treasurer; J. B. McComb, first whip.

At the last meet the ground was very heavy, and the chase was after a drag as it was too wet for a chase after Reynard. The hounds were laid in an open field near Glencove, the home of the McCombs, and the course was over about fifteen pretty stiff rall fences. These were all taken well, and there was only one fall, Mr. McComb's mount going down at a ditch where the footing gave way, were those who years there who yed.
